

Road name submissions

Par en Bas Suggestions

Leo's Boulevard – No reason given

Quinton Rd. - Chose this name because it takes 'Quin' from Quinan and it's such a great place

Island Street – c'est comme mon nom

Amethyst Lane – I like gemstones

Sea Devil Rd. – Dads boat name

Robicheau's Lane – It's my last name

Muise Rd. – No reason given

Chemin a Tusket – par ce que c'est un bone nom pous un chemin

Batman St. – Favorite superhero

Leo's Red River Rd. – No reason given

Brewery Street – Because of the brewery in Tusket

Rapure – It's very Acadian and Rapure is very tasty

Point de tusket – c'est francais

3 for Lobster Point Rd. – No reason given (just copied what another student said)

Hirschfeld Rd. – It's my last name

Tusketchek Road – Je love

Le chemin de tusket – we don't have a road named after our community yet

Brewery road – because of Tusket falls

Chemin Gaspereau – People are always fishing those fish nearby

Council Suggestions

Calvin

J.E Hatfield road/avenue. Jack Elmer Hatfield was the first Canadian to die from aerial combat in WW2. He was from Tusket.

Danny

Janice just thought of that as well, except she said Whitfield lane

Guy

Wood's Lane.....After owner of property who had home there for generations...

Lucien

Maybe there's value in naming it after our municipal clerk who vanished and is presumed dead in the early nineties? Gerry Doucet, I believe.